

We use to get approximately six unwanted phone calls per day.
Now we get less than two per week on average and many weeks receive none. Please leave Indiana's law as it is. Our privacy and family time is valuable to us and we do not want unsolicited phone calls!